

Robert F. "Chachi" Lightenfield

Robert Francis Lightenfield, 53, of Granby, NY, also known as "Chachi" to many of his friends, passed away on Wednesday, July 5, 2017, along with his dog Penny in a tragic motorcycle accident. He was born on September 22, 1963, at St. Mary's Hospital in Syracuse. He grew up and attended school in Liverpool, NY. In his youth, he was an avid dance and speed skater. He loved riding his motorcycle, building, fixing, rebuilding, designing, and custom painting his bikes. Robert is survived by his life partner, Olive Hollady; his children, Robert A., Nicole K. and Joshua A. (Jeremiah) Lightenfield-Verne.; his father, George E. Sr. (Carol).; siblings, Patricia F. Welnicki, George E. Jr., Katherine (Wayne) Kunz Irleand, Thomas (Karen) Kunz; grandchildren, Mercedeze Lightenfield, Camryn and Ethan Mochinal, Alexis Belden; several nieces, aunts, uncles, and many cousins. Robert is predeceased by his mother, Patricia A. (Mannise) and his sister Georgian M.

