

Russell D. “Brother Russ” Christian

Russell D. Christian, 62, of Rock Hill, South Carolina, passed away Tuesday January 13, 2015, surrounded by family at the Wayne T. Patrick Hospice House after a tough battle with liver cancer. Born in Tampa, Florida in 1952, Russell aka “Brother Russ” lived a life full of laughter and love. His passions included playing music with his father, the late Stanley Christian, riding motorcycles, attending car shows and being the life of the party. Russell worked at Anheuser-Busch in Baldwinsville, New York for 33 years as a brewer before relocating to the city of Rock Hill. Russell is most known for being a jokester, and his favorite saying was “Let the festivities begin, brother Russ is in.” He is survived by his wife, Carrie J. Christian, son, Zachary R. and husband, Joseph A. Christian and his many family and friends.
