

Scott Mulholland

Scott Mulholland, 51, lifelong resident of Syracuse's Tipperary Hill, passed away unexpectedly on Friday, September 3, 2010, at home. Born in Syracuse, he was an active participant in the Irish community of Tipperary Hill. He was one of the founders and a member of Tipperary Hill Athletic Club; a member of Tipp Hill American Legion Post #1361; Syracuse American Turners Club; Fuco's Athletic Club; Teamsters Local #317; a member of the Valley Desperados; and a medallion carrier of the Enforcers. Scott was employed with Southern Wine and Spirits and was a lifelong communicant of St. Patrick's Church. He was predeceased by his father, James "Moe," in 1980 and his mother, Edith, in 2003. Surviving are the love of his life, Diane Taylor of Syracuse; two brothers, John (Sue) and Joe (Renee), both of Lakeland, NY; nephews, Joseph Jr., Sean and Zachary; niece, Caitlyn; and several aunts, uncles and cousins.

