

Barry A. “Bear Cat” Lewin

Barry A. Lewin, 55, known as “Bear Cat”, of Sanborn, New York, died suddenly Monday May 31, 2004, as the result of injuries suffered in a motorcycle accident, on Ward Road, in the Town of Wheatfield, New York. He was born in Niagara Falls, New York, on April 2, 1949, the son of Ruth E. [Scouten] Lewin and the late Stanley W. Lewin, and was a graduate of the Niagara Wheatfield High School. He was inducted into the United States Army, on September 23, 1969, in Buffalo, New York. He was injured during active duty and received a medical honorable discharge on September 8, 1971, Fort Belvoir, Virginia. Along with riding his Harley, he enjoyed spending time with his children, watching football, hockey, and his grandson play Little League baseball. He also liked to hunt, fish, gardening, and camping. He was always there to help anyone. He would stop doing what he was and go and help them. Surviving in addition to his mother, is a daughter, Jennifer M. (Dave Deskovic) Lewin; a son, Neil W. (Fiancé Kim Foster) Lewin; a grandson Joshua Deskovic, all of Niagara Falls; a sister, Gail M. Hitzel, of Pendleton; nieces Heather J. Hitzel; Courtney and Kristy Lewin; nephew Nathan J. Hitzel, his former wife, Lucille Schrio, of Niagara Falls, New York. He was the brother of the late Jeffery W. Lewin.
