

Ida Mae Hollenbeck

Ida Mae Hollenbeck, 62, of Oswego, passed away unexpectedly on Thursday, July 27 at Crouse Hospital. She was born on November 2, 1954, in Fulton, a daughter to the late Burton and Carol Marley. Ida loved her job at The Home Depot in Liverpool. Some of her enjoyments in life were racing, camping, traveling, casino, and her family, but above all Candy Crush and Dr. Phil. She was predeceased by her brother, Mark Bradbury and sister, Mollie Butler. She is survived by her three children, Bobby (Lisa) Hollenbeck of Granby, Jessica Battles of Fulton and Danielle (Shawn) Bixby of Volney; five grandchildren, Haley, Hunter, Kendyll, Jackson and Dawson; one grandchild on the way; fiancé, Chuck Goodway of Oswego; one brother, Tom (Bev) Davis of Granby; two sisters, Wanda (Chris) Hirschey of Syracuse and Mary (Dave) Saccocci of Central Square; loving cat, Grady as well as several nieces and nephews.