

Jason W. Crompt

Jason W. Crompt, 34, of County Route 24, Chateaugay, died Thursday, August 4, 2016, at UVM Medical Center, Burlington, Vermont after a motorcycle accident earlier in the day. Born in Malone, New York on September 25, 1981, he was the son of Dale Crompt and Susan Quilliam. He was married to Amy Lamica for 13 years. Jason graduated from Franklin Academy, Malone with the Class of 1999. He was employed by Diamond Comics, Plattsburgh. He enjoyed riding his motorcycle, hunting, fishing, playing games, watching television, and hanging out with his friends. Jason is survived by his wife, Amy; two daughters, Destini, age 12, and Haylie, age 11; a son, Jason W. Crompt Jr., age 8; his father, Dale W. Crompt and his companion, Paula Rockhill and her sons, Matt and Jordan Rockhill; his mother, Susan Quilliam and her companion, Roger Bracy and his children, Kelley and Dale Bracy; a brother, Adam Crompt and his companion, Jodi Bushey and their son, Alex; a half-brother, Scott Agnew and his two children, Kierra and Sydney Agnew; an uncle and aunt, Maurice and Mary Crompt and their sons, Perry and Andy Hamilton of Burke; paternal grandmother, Ruth Crompt of Burke and maternal grandfather, Leon Badger of Merrill. He was predeceased by his paternal grandfather, William F. Crompt; great-grandmother, Lena Lavalley; maternal grandmother, Marion Badger and father-in-law and mother-in-law, Raymond and Rhonda Lamica.