

Ontario ABATE

Robert B. Bancroft

Robert B. Bancroft, of Rochester, died October 9, 2017, at age 79. Born July 9, 1938, in Rochester New York. Robert is predeceased by his parents, Laurier E. Bancroft, and Elizabeth B. Bancroft. He is survived by his sisters, Kathleen Mead and Nancy Hiers (James). He is also survived by his sons, Brian Bancroft (Marcella) of Oxford, New York, and Christopher Bancroft (Deanna) of Lakewood, New York and his daughter, Cheryl Hanley of Henrietta New York; 9 grandchildren, 5 great grandchildren; nieces, nephews and cousins. Robert was an audio-visual systems engineer at Rochester Institute of Technology for 23 years and worked as a dubber/control board operator for WROC for 10 years. He was an avid motorcycle enthusiast and a lifetime member of Ontario ABATE. He loved everything outdoors and travelling cross country on his motorcycle. He also was a respected member of his Native American Heritage. In lieu of flowers, contributions in Robert's memory can be made to ABATE (American Bikers Aimed Toward Education of New York, Ontario Chapter).