

Steve Roussel

Steve Roussel, 52, of Unionville, Connecticut, beloved husband of Kathy (Gagnon) Roussel, died Wednesday, March 22, 2017, as the result of an accident in Avon. Born in Bristol, son of the late Rino and Jackie Roussel, he was raised there graduating from Central High School in 1983. Steve served in the United States Navy from 1983-1993 and then graduated from Lincoln Technical Culinary Institute and spent several years cooking at J Timothy's, 99, and ESPN before beginning to drive for Specialty Transportation, of Avon. Steve loved to be outdoors, from the beach to motorcycle trips with his wife Kathy. He also enjoyed scuba diving and was a member of the PADI Diving Association. Steve loved playing the guitar and was a big fan of Van Halen and Jimmy Hendrix music. A member of the Harley Hog Club, he also was a sports fan of the Pittsburgh Steelers, Michigan Wolverines, and the Vancouver Canucks. Besides his wife and companion for 17 years, Kathy, he leaves a son Adam Roussel and his wife Nicole of Bristol; a daughter Lauren Roussel of Terryville; a brother Tom Roussel of Bristol; grandchildren Gavin and Liam Roussel; nieces and nephews Austin, Samantha, Jessica, and Andrew.

