

Anita J. French

Anita J. French, 67, of Syracuse, passed away unexpectedly with her family at her side on February 27, 2020. Anita was born in Syracuse, New York on January 28, 1953, to the late Lloyd and Maryann (Taylor) Lockhart. For many years, she was a cook at Child Time on Onondaga Hill. She belonged to the Christian Motorcycle Association and previously to the Red Knights NY 14. She is survived by her loving husband of 47 years, James French; their children, Jennifer (Richard) Rolfe; James French; Azure French; and Enjoli French; eight grandchildren; one great-grand-daughter; three brothers, and a sister. She was predeceased by brothers, Richard and Jimmy; and sister, Gail Ann.