

John Anthony Korthas

John Anthony Korthas, 51 of Williamstown, NY passed away unexpectedly Sunday evening January 24, 2021, in the comfort of his own home. John was born April 18, 1969, in Syracuse, NY, a son of James & Elsie Downing Korthas and was a 1988 graduate of Paul V. Moore High School in Central Square, NY. John invested in rental property and had owned his own construction company since he was 18 years old, his most recent was Northern Tier Construction. He was very skilled and had a lot of experience with almost every aspect of construction. John was a simple man, yet his mind was never still, always thinking about his next move within the company. He loved to play in the dirt with any piece of machinery, which he ran very well. He was a hard worker and enjoyed what he did. His favorite thing to do was to ride his motorcycle and hang out with his friends and family. John was in love with Barbie Braun, her children and grandchildren. Together, they lead a happy life along with his daughter, Christina Korthas and his son, Joseph Korthas, both of Williamstown, NY. John is also survived by his sister, Rosemarie Korthas, Manhattan, NY, seven brothers, David & Susan Skinner, Richland, NY, James & Shannon Korthas, Jr, Ohio, Donald Korthas, Sr, Syracuse, NY, Thomas Korthas, Weedsport, NY, George Korthas & Amy Schouten, Parish, NY, Robert Korthas, Sr, Utah, Joshua Korthas, Syracuse, NY, several nieces, nephews and a number of countless friends, all of which he left a good impression on. Besides his parents, he was predeceased by two brothers, Lawrence Skinner and Paul Korthas.
