

LOOK TWICE

SAVE A LIFE

In Memory of All Fallen Riders.....
ForeverFriendsMotorcycleAwareness.org

Mark Anthony Khoury

Mark Anthony Khoury, 21, of Lafayette, passed away Friday, September 3, 2010. Born in Denville, Mark was a longtime resident of Lafayette and worked as an electrician. He was a 2007 graduate of High Point Regional High School. Mark played his heart out in every sport, which he loved dearly football, wrestling and baseball. His family requests that all drivers be aware of motorcyclists; they are someone's beloved family member! Mark had a heart of gold and a smile to make anyone's day. He would do anything for anyone. A loving son, brother, grandson, nephew, cousin and friend, Mark was respected by all. His infectious personality always left a lasting impression on every life he touched. He will be dearly missed. Mark was predeceased by his paternal grandfather, Samuel Khoury, and his Uncle Greg. He is survived by his father, David Khoury of Haledon; his mother, Toni Khoury of Lafayette; his sister, Samantha Jo Khoury of Lafayette; his best friend, Jeremy Ramirez; his maternal grandparents, Anthony and Joan Caserta, of Randolph; his paternal grandparents, Edith Khoury of North Haledon; his loving aunts, uncles and numerous cousins.