

Stephen Mahana

Stephen Mahana, 55, tragically passed away Sunday, June 22, 2020, while on a motorcycle ride through the Tug Hill and Adirondack region. Born November 27, 1964 in Utica, he lived most of his life in the Syracuse area. He was a graduate of Christian Brothers Academy and received a Bachelor of Science Degree in Chemistry from LeMoyne College. He worked throughout his life in the environmental services industry, most recently as a Senior Project Engineer at Abscope Environmental, Inc., in Canastota. He enjoyed being outdoors and loved spending his weekends at his camp in Osceola where he would ride his motorcycles, four wheelers, dirt bikes, and snowmobiles. He had a passion for adventure and always lived his life to the fullest, right until the very end. He was an amazing father to his two children, and a wonderful friend to many. He is predeceased by his mother, Mary Ann Mahana (Arcuri). He is survived by his father, George Mahana of Brewerton; his sister, Beth Stevenson of Asheville, NC; and his daughter and son, Emily and Eddie Mahana, both from Clay.
