

Timothy W. "Tim" Beaucage

Timothy W. "Tim" Beaucage, Sr., 46, of Kinderhook, died suddenly on Sunday March 4, 2007 at Columbia Memorial Hospital in Hudson. Born in Hudson, NY May 4, 1960, he was the beloved son of the late Joseph H. Beaucage Jr. and Mary Jane (Holsapple) Beaucage who resides in Kinderhook. He was an honors graduate of Ichabod Crane High School where he was an outstanding soccer and baseball player. Tim was previously employed at A.V, Pump & Tank, R.M. Lill and For-Beau Construction all in Rensselaer County. Most recently, he was self-employed with Iron-wood Construction, working together with his brother Joe. A humble master carpenter and mason, his perfectionism, patience and expert craftsmanship is reflected in all his finished works. There was nothing his artful hands could not construct. He was an avid outdoorsman, enjoying bow and rifle hunting, turkey hunting and calling, snowmobiling and all types of racing. In his spare time, he loved riding his Harley Davidson and was a member of the East Coast Riders. Tim is survived by his cherished son, Timothy W. Beaucage Jr. of Kinderhook of whom he was so proud of his numerous academic accomplishments and his extensive travels abroad, his loving companion, Jamie Smith. He is also survived by his dear brother: Joseph H. Beaucage 3rd of Kinderhook, NY, his loving sisters: Linda C. Beaucage of Greenport, Kathi A. Austin and her husband Al of Kinderhook, Brenda L. Marlines and her husband Robert of Valatie, his 4 nieces: Katee H. Austin, Renee and Shannon Beaucage and Leigh Ann Schermerhom, 5 nephews: Al P. (Bud) Austin, Michael Beaucage, Dennis Shields and Jasen Von Guinness and Branden Marlines. Tim was truly a friend to many. His ever present, infectious smile, sense of humor and bright blue eyes will be deeply missed by all whose lives he has touched.

