

Thomas “Tom” Viscome

Thomas Viscome, 59, of East Syracuse, passed away August 20, 2020. He was born in Syracuse and retired as a mechanic for J.P. Auto and also at Bill Rapp. Tom loved to explore lighthouses and also enjoyed chasing hurricanes. He was predeceased by his parents, Sam and Barbara Viscome. Survived by his son, Michael Viscome of Syracuse and daughter, Alexandra of East Syracuse; his siblings, Joseph (Julie Forger) Viscome of Daytona Beach, FL and Patty (Kathy) Viscome of North Carolina; his uncle Tony and aunt Linda Viscome; cousins, David (Erin) and Michael Viscome and his two best friends, Mark Virginia and Dean McCarthy.