

Thomas A. Wallace

Thomas A. Wallace, 55, of Hannibal, passed away unexpectedly on Tuesday, August 1, 2017, at University Hospital in Syracuse.

He lived most of his life in the Oswego County area. Tom was a veteran of the United States Army and served two tours, stationed in Colorado, Germany, and Korea. He loved and lived life to its fullest. Tom enjoyed spending time four-wheeling, camping, playing pool and golf. He also loved to watch football and was an avid Giants fan. Tom loved his family and will be greatly missed by them. He was predeceased by his mother, Sharon Bateman, in 2013. Surviving are his companion, Debbie Pulsifer of Hannibal; sister Brenda Wallace of Fulton; five brothers, Mark Wallace of Oswego, Brent (Tracie) Denny of Fulton, Shane (Lisa) Denny of Fulton, Robbie (Nikki) Wallace of Oswego and Ryan (Laurie) Wallace of Oswego; father A. Thomas Wallace of Oswego; son Thomas Greiner of Virginia; and 11 grandchildren, as well as several nieces and nephews.

